Mark 12:1-27

What is your favorite book of the Bible and why is that so?

1. He hasn't used any parables since Mark 4. To your way of thinking, why is He using the parabolic teaching method here?
2. Read Psalm 118. Why would He introduce the idea "the Stone which the builders rejected" at this point in the parable?
3. Jesus is certainly being very pointed with the religious leaders of the day. Do you suppose that He loves them or hates them. Site evidence for your choice.
4. It's tax time in America. Is it lawful to give tribute to Caesar, or not?
5. Jesus tells the Sadducee's that they err because they do not know the Scriptures nor the power of God. In which of these two directions do you have a tendency to err?
6. We understand what the religious leaders are trying to accomplish. They are trying to discredit Jesus and His ministry. What is it that God is trying to accomplish. Hint: Read Exodus 12. I think the answer is found in verse 5.
