Mark 16

What animal do you remind yourself of?

1. Why do you think Mark documented two women – Mary Magdalene and Salome, whose testimonies would not have even been admissible in court – as the first ones to arrive at Jesus' tomb? What is the significance of this?
2. In light of Mark 8:31, Mark 10:34, Mark 14:28, does it surprise you that there doesn't seem to be any disciples or followers of Jesus that were expecting Him to rise from the dead? Does it seem that Mary and Salome are anticipating an empty tomb?
3. What is the first command given to the women upon seeing that Jesus has risen? What might we learn from this command today?
4. Why do you suppose, the greatest event in the history of the world is mentioned so simply "He is risen?"
5. Explain Mark 16:14.
6. Do you think Mark 16:8 is the last verse in the Gospel of Mark? Why, or why not?
